Water Out Corp would like to take this time to thank all of our Water Out members, friends and family, for all their hard work and dedication to making Water Out the success it is today.

It has been an eventful year, especially with the tremendous efforts put forth in the floods in Iowa, Texas and Washington. Helping people get back their lives and homes helps put our own life's challenges into perspective.

This year, many of our Water Out members throughout the United States donated their time and drying services to Extreme Makeover: Home Edition to help accomplish the build of dream homes for deserving families.

Thanks for all your efforts and we wish you continued success. Have a safe and Happy Holiday.

From Charlie and all of us at Water Out Drying Corp.
